Re: U.S. v. Felix Sater

Dear Judge Glasser:

I write to request permission for my client, Felix Sater, to travel on a one day trip to Washington, D.C. on Friday, July 9, 1999. The purpose of Mr. Sater's trip is to explore business opportunities in the medical field. It may be necessary for Mr. Sater to make a one day follow-up visit to Washington, D.C. the week of July 19th.

We therefore, request your Honor's permission to allow Mr. Sater to travel as indicated. It is my understanding that Agent Leo Taddeo of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as well as the prosecutor, Assistant United States Attorney Jonathan Sack, have no objections to this travel. We thank you for your Honor's consideration of our application.

Respectfully yours,

Myles H. Malman
